SUBJECT: Update to Premium Class Travel Reporting Requirement

In a March 19, 2004 memorandum, subject Premium Class Travel Reporting Requirement (attached), I outlined the reporting requirements for Premium Class Travel. Since then, we have improved the process by developing a web-based application to report Premium Class Travel. It will allow automatic consolidation at each successive command level, make policy and regulatory guidelines available electronically, and replace the requirement for manual consolidation.

Effective October 1, 2007, all approved premium class travel will be entered into this application within 5 business days of approval. The final semi-annual report for the period ending on September 30, 2007, (Excel spreadsheet format) is due as previously outlined in the stated memorandum. Concurrently, responsibility for the Department's Premium Class Travel program is assigned to the Defense Travel Management Office.

The Defense Travel Management Office will contact the reporting office for each approval authority before October 1, 2007, to assist with registration and use. My point of contact is Margaret Hebert at PremiumTravel@dtmo.pentagon.mil or (703) 696-8417.

MEMORANDUM FOR SECRETARIES OF THE MILITARY DEPARTMENTS
DIRECTOR, JOINT STAFF
EXECUTIVE SECRETARY, DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE

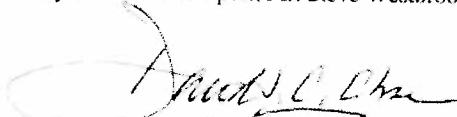

SUBJECT: Premium Class Travel Reporting Requirement

The recent General Accounting Office (GAO) report on the Department's premium class travel program (GAO #04-88, October 2003) identified the need for a reporting system within the Department. The task force on premium class travel addressed the findings of the GAO report and developed the data content and reporting format for a new report. The Deputy Secretary tasked me to implement the task force recommendations on reporting. A copy of the Deputy Secretary's memorandum is attached. In turn, this serves as the official tasking document requiring each addressee to collect and report all premium class travel each quarter, starting with the quarter ending June 30, 2004.

The November 17, 2003, interim change to DoD Directive 4500.9 assigns you the approval authority for first class travel. Except for the Executive Secretary, the directive gives you some limited delegation authority for first class travel. The March 1, 2004, changes to the Joint Federal Travel Regulation and the Joint Travel Regulation also assign you the approval authority for business class travel. For business class, you are allowed to delegate approval authority but no lower than two-star or civilian equivalent level. As you implement the reporting requirement within your organization, recommend you task each delegated approval authority to provide you with the required data. Please submit one consolidated report to the Office of the Principal Deputy Under Secretary of Defense (Personnel and Readiness) by the end of the month following the end of each reporting quarter.

The attached document provides the data we will require for a complete report. The reporting medium is an Excel spreadsheet with the data elements as the columns and a row for each approval. A skeletonized Excel spreadsheet and the electronic version of the reporting instructions may be downloaded from the Per Diem, Travel and Transportation Allowance Committee web site at <http://www.dtic.mil/perdiem/>.

Please direct your questions to my POC for this report, Mr. Steve Westbrook at (703) 325-1420.
