

PCS Elapsed Time Is Less than Authorized Travel Time (JTR, par. 053807)

Scenario: A traveler departs his or her permanent duty station (PDS), traveling by privately owned vehicle (POV). The official Defense Table Official Distance (DTOD) distance from the old PDS to the new PDS is 1,500 miles. The traveler is detached from the activity at the old PDS on June 1 and checks into the new activity at the new PDS on June 4. The maximum allowable travel time is 5 days (1,500 miles /350 miles); however, the actual elapsed time is 4 days (June 1-4). The traveler is paid 4 days as travel time.
