G. Premium Class Accommodations for a Medical Disability or Special Need

1. It is DoD policy (refer to JTR, par. 020206.K) that premium class accommodations due to a disability or special need be used only when there are no alternative means to accommodate the traveler's condition (for example, bulkhead, aisle seating, use of two adjoining coach seats, etc.). A traveler must provide written certification by a competent medical authority to obtain a travel accommodation for a disability. Written certification must substantiate the disability, its functional limitations, the necessity of any recommended travel accommodation, and the duration of any recommended travel accommodation. For a temporary disability, a traveler must obtain recertification after the certified duration expires, or otherwise as appropriate. For a lifelong disability, a traveler is not required to recertify the disability itself, but must recertify the necessity of the travel accommodation if the disability remits or intensifies. An AO may authorize non-premium class travel accommodations for a special need without medical certification.

2. A traveler who requests premium class accommodations due to disability or special need should request authorization well in advance of anticipated travel to ensure there is sufficient time to obtain required premium class authorization prior to travel.

3. If extenuating circumstances or emergency situations prevent advance authorization, the traveler must obtain written approval from the AO responsible for premium class within 7 days of travel completion. Failure to receive the appropriate authorization or approval for premium class transportation either before or after travel may result in the traveler being financially liable for costs in excess of the economy or coach class airfare.

H. Premium Class Transportation Approval Checklist. Although existing policy allows the use of premium class transportation (in other words, premium class travel) in certain circumstances, the AO must certify that all decision factors and other alternatives were considered prior to recommending approval. The Premium Class Transportation Approval Checklist must be used and submitted as part of the approval documentation. It is used to certify that the decision factors and other alternatives were considered in the approval process.

Premium Class Transportation Approval Checklist

Item	Yes	No
1. Can the objective be accomplished by correspondence, teleconference, web-based communications, or other appropriate means?
2. Is the trip for any of the following reasons: Permanent Change of Station (PCS); Renewal Agreement Travel (RAT); Consecutive Overseas Tour (COT); In Place Consecutive Overseas Tour Leave (IPCOT); Emergency Visitation Travel (EVT); Family Visitation Travel (FVT); Emergency Leave; Rest & Recuperation (R&R); Funded Environmental and Morale Leave (FEML); or Evacuation? Premium-class transportation should not be approved for any of these trip types.
3. Could another traveler accomplish the mission?
4. Could a GSA business-class City Pair Program airfare be used for premium-class transportation?
5. Could lower cost accommodations—for example, Economy Plus or Coach Elite, bulkhead, two economy seats, or lowest business-class seating—be used as an alternative to premium-class seating or airfares?
6. Is the cost for premium-class airfare less than the cost for the least expensive unrestricted economy- or coach-class airfare?
7. Have other alternative travel dates and times been considered to obtain an economy- or coach-class airfare?
8. If flight time is in excess of 14 hours—including non-overnight airport stopovers and plane changes—could an en route stopover or rest-period at the TDY location before beginning work accomplish travel at a lower cost?
9. Has a competent medical authority substantiated the disability, its functional limitations, the necessity of any recommended travel accommodation, and the duration of any recommended travel accommodation? For a temporary disability, a traveler must obtain recertification after the certified duration expires, or otherwise as appropriate. For a lifelong disability, a traveler is not required to recertify the disability itself, but must recertify the necessity of the travel accommodation if the disability remits or intensifies.
10. For DoD: As the authorizing official, reporting offices (approval authority) must ensure that all trips involving premium-class airfares have been approved in accordance with all regulations.
